SIR System / Grievance Redressal

One Booth Level Officer (BLO) for each polling station.

ERO (Electoral Registration Officer) handles constituency-level preparation of the voter list and considers claims/objections.

The District Electoral Officer (DEO) hears the 1st Appeal against the decision of ERO.

The CEO of the State hears the 2nd Appeal against the decision of DEO.

Submit the form online.

Whereas, one of the fundamental pre-conditions set out in Article 326 of the Constitution is that a person must be an Indian citizen for his or her name to be registered in the electoral roll, and the Commission has a constitutional obligation to ensure that only citizens are included therein. Further, under Section 21 of the Representation of the People Act, 1950, along with other applicable provisions, the Commission is empowered to direct a special intensive revision of the electoral rolls, including their preparation afresh.

As per article 326 of the Constitution of India:

- Citizen of India
- At least 18 years of age
- Ordinarily Resident of the constituency
